

New Trier's Post-High School Counseling Office Sophomore Parent Newsletters

New Trier's post-high school counseling office is offering newsletters to sophomore parents on a voluntary basis.

Designed to provide parents with information pertinent to your student's postsecondary success, the newsletters will be forwarded electronically to you approximately six times during the sophomore year.

Topics may include:

- Making the most out of the classroom: how to support your student's academic progress
- Balance: Finding co-curricular activities that speak to the heart
- Recommendations about recommendations: How classroom behavior opens or closes doors in the college admission process
- The college/career system at New Trier
- Standardized testing
- Special considerations for student athletes, visual and performing arts candidates and students with learning disabilities
