

Online Book Sale Information & Directions

The New Trier Bookstore is available to provide textbook and eBook purchases for 2019-20. The District is committed to making the best possible instructional materials available to students at the lowest possible price. The formats of the available instructional materials are set on a course-by-course basis, and not all formats are available for each course. The purchase options for books include new, used, rental, and/or ebooks. To save time and avoid lines, families are strongly encouraged to purchase texts online and choose in-store pickup.
