

Dear New Trier Senior Families,

C.L. Lindsay, founder and executive director of the Coalition for Student & Academic Rights (CO-STAR), is coming to New Trier for a discussion with our senior students followed by a separate program for parents/guardians on Wednesday, April 20th

Mr. Lindsay is a nationally recognized leader in the field of student rights and academic freedom, and his organization helps thousands of college students with their legal problems, free of charge, each year. He will cover a wide range of topics that focus on the transition beyond high school, including online privacy, sexting, stalking, Title IX, consent, and digital image and footprint awareness. Mr. Lindsay has presented at New Trier for over fifteen years while adjusting his topics to fit current times. This is one of the most well-received programs by our senior students and parents.

Senior Presentation April 20, 8:20 – 9:55 a.m.

Seniors will report to Gaffney Auditorium by 8:20 a.m. and will be excused from period 5A.

Senior Parent/Guardian Presentation (sponsored by NTPA) April 20, 10:30 -11:30 a.m.

The Parent/Guardian presentation will be in the Gaffney Auditorium Wednesday April 20th from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Parents should enter through the Gaffney Auditorium entrance located on Winnetka Ave. Parking will be available on Winnetka Ave. and on Trevian Way. The parent program will be recorded and available on the NTPA and Principal's website page.

Parents please RSVP to Sara Kirpatrick: kirkpatrick1103@comcast.net or to Michelle Kane at michelle.kane@comcast.net.

We are excited to welcome Mr. Lindsay back to New Trier and look forward to his presentations.
